In Memoriam.

Ethel R. Bagley, daughter of Thomas R. Bagley, died at Rosalia, Spring on November 10. Interment at Pleasant Valley. Little Ethel was aged seven years, one month and 29 days. She was unusually bright. Her spirit left its tenement of clay and our wings were wafted to that beautiful home which she so frequently spoke of. As she neared the water's edge her last words to her mother and sister and Sunday school mates were "Farewell! I am going home." She has left behind her evidence that she is now with the redeemed of all ages. Then let your sorrows be soothed by the comforting assurance that she has gained that beautiful haven of rest, where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest. A FRIEND.

Undertaker Meets With Accident.

The Martinsburg Herald of November 14 published the following from its Louisville correspondent: "Roosevelt, one of whose ill-fated sons was killed, died Thursday of last week. He is survived by his father, mother and two brothers, Earl and Harry. The family have the sympathy of the entire community. Interment was made in the cemetery at New Granada. When returning from the cemetery, Mr. Karns, the undertaker, was descending a steep hill when the horse upset, throwing him among the horses. He received painful injuries about the head and face and had three ribs broken. Earl Schenck, who was with Mr. Karns, was kicked by a horse, but the injury is not serious. We hope both parties may speedily recover."

Eighty-eight Tribes Represented.

Col. R. L. Pratt, superintendent of the government training school for Indians at Carlisle, has sent to Washington his twenty-third annual report. It shows there are 1,073 Indians at the school, representing 88 tribes. It is contended that in no other institution in the world are there so many different nationalities as are gathered here to be taught to speak one language. During the year 480 boys and 430 girls remained during winter attending district and other Americanizing schools, earning their board with their work out of school. The boys earned $30,845.77 and the girls $18,112.44. Tuesday night one death at the school the past year and forty-one pupils graduated in the class of 1902.

Following Pennsy's Good Example.

It is said that the example set by the Pennsylvania Railroad company last week and followed promptly by the New York Central, in advancing wages ten per cent, will be duplicated by practically every railroad in the country. Within the next few weeks, it is reported, increases of the wages of their employees will be announced by various railroad companies that will result in the average yearly income of the 650,000 men affected by at least $10,000,000 and probably by more than $20,000,000. A conservative estimate of the sum is $17,000,000.

Nary a Bear.

COUNTY COURT.

and a third one had been commenced. The balls had been "racked," one of the players in attempting to break the "rack" made a scratch. After some discussion, the players agreed to commence the game and Hayman undertook to "rack" the balls, which seemed to be against the rules of Wolf's pool room, as this duty is reserved to be done by the proprietor or his clerk. Just as Hayman was in the act of racking Wolf came into the room, went up to Hayman and took the rack from him and pushed him away. Some altercation took place and Hayman struck Wolf several times, breaking his nose and otherwise injuring him. Both parties and their witnesses claimed that the other was the aggressor, but the jurors rendered their sealed verdict, in which they found Wolf "not guilty," and Hayman "guilty in manner and form as he stands indicted." The case was hotly contested, and owing to the prominence of both prosecutor and defendant, attracted considerable interest, both in and out of court.

The court, in passing sentence, commented upon the conduct of both prosecutor and defendant, and pronounced the following sentence on Frank H. Hayman, who resides in Hyndman, to wit: That he pay a fine of $100, the costs of prosecution, or secure the same to be paid within ten days, and further sentence suspended. Costs, fine, etc., amounted to $152.16 and were promptly paid.

Commonwealth vs. James R. Wilson, P. and B. and seduction, on oath of Hattie J. Adams, returned by Justice J. H. Horton. Case having been amicably settled, no prosecution allowed on payment of costs.

Commonwealth vs. L. C. Evans and Jeremiah Burk, violating liquor laws, on oath of Alexander Mills, returned by Justice G. W. Ritchey. Grand jury returns not a true bill as to Lewis C. Evans, and a true bill as to Jeremiah Burk. The defendant, Jeremiah Burk, an aged colored man of Everett, pleaded not guilty to the charge, but, on trial, the jury promptly found him guilty of selling liquor without a license, selling on Sunday and selling on election day. The defendant seemed to be an ignorant old man, who did not realize that he was violating the law, and, no doubt, was a victim, being encouraged by thoughtless, if not wicked men, to keep whisky and sell to those who encouraged him and bought from him on days when they could not get it at the hotels. The court wisely took this view of the case and suspended sentence on the charge of selling on Sunday and election day, imposed upon him the minimum sentence for selling without a license so to do, as follows: Pay a fine of $500, the costs of prosecution and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period of three months. Costs, fine, etc., amounted to $334.04.

Commonwealth vs. W. P. Hendrickson, malicious libel, on oath of George A. Corle, returned by Justice H. E. Mason. Case settled and no prosecution allowed on payment of costs.

Commonwealth vs. Sheridan Jay, desertion, on oath of his wife, Minnie B. Jay, returned by Justice G. W. Ritchey. Continued. Recognizance renewed.

Commonwealth vs. George Leighty, murder, on oath of Philip Chamberlain, returned by Justice Joseph R. Ritchey. Defendant in jail. Case continued.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

Three Tasting in Friends' Cove.

Early Friday morning men and women were seen gathering from all directions to the hospitable home of E. Grant Diehl, of near Charlesville, to help raise his new barn, which was framed by the well known carpenters, D. S. G. and Christ Dierl, of Pleasant Valley. They well know how to erect good and substantial buildings and are considered to be the "boss" carpenters of Dutch Corner. They were ably assisted by their corps of workmen, C. G. Smith, David Imier, Emanuel Fickes and Lee Diehl. The structure is 54x70 feet in size and a well built frame and they deserve great credit for their mechanical skill. An accident occurred at the raising, a brace falling 23 feet, striking a young man named Biddle on the head and inflicting quite a painful injury. Dr. Lessig, of Rainsburg, dressed the wound. The principal feature of the occasion was the big dinner, which the Friends' Cove women know how to prepare. Everybody present greatly enjoyed the feast. In the evening the young folks of the surrounding country assembled and tripped the light fantastic toe till the wee small hours of morning, when all returned to their respective homes, thanking the host and hostess for their kind hospitality. A hundred and forty persons were present.

STORE NEWS.

METROPOLITAN Clothing and Shoe House.

At last our stock is now all in, and we are glad to say that our customers seem to appreciate the goods placed before them. We will tell you in as few words as we possibly can in order not to detain you reading our ads all day, as WE want part of the day to sell you your seasonable wearing apparel. This is what we have to offer you this month :

Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and Overcoats. : : :

All the newest makes and patterns. The Men's Suits begin in price at $4.90, the Boys' Suits, sizes from 14 to 20 years of age, begin in price at $3.90, the Children's Suits begin in price at $1.25.

So it is with our Overcoats, too. Of course you can go as high on a Suit or Overcoat as $20. The more you pay the better goods you get, and above all, we guarantee you a saving of at least from 15 to 30 per cent. Compare our goods and prices with others and you'll soon see the saving. But clothing alone is not the only thing we can save you money on; there are lots of other goods we sell at Money Saving Prices. Here are a few of them :

Hats, Caps, Underwear, Gloves, Hosiery, Trunks, Satchels,

And, in fact, anything that Man or Boy wears at less than what other stores want. A few prices to convince you of our Bargains. Men's heavy fleeced underwear at 39c, the usual price is 50c. Boys' best fleeced underwear at 25c, the usual price is 40c. A lot of Women's and Children's underwear for half what other stores ask for them.

A few words about Boots and Shoes.

We'd rather sell 10 pairs of shoes at 25c a pair profit than one pair at 50c profit. That's why, I suppose, we sell so many shoes. No matter what you want in footwear—we have it all, you need to do is to ask for it. The price—we guarantee it to be the lowest or we don't want your money. That's fair enough, is it not?

We mustn't forget to tell you about our Ladies' Garments. Do you know that the MONTE CARLO Box Coat is all the go now—do you know that we sell all the latest styles in Ladies' Wearing Apparel, such as Jackets, Raglans, Plush and Cloth Capes, and a large line of Girls' and Children's Cloaks? Did you ever buy of us in that line? If not, why not? Suppose you didn't know we kept them. Now you DO know, so honor us with your visit and look over our stock. We know that once you see the garments WE sell you will buy from us. Perhaps you think the price too high. No, not a bit of it. Here are a few samples :

Ladies' 27 inch Jackets at $4.90, make of all wool Melton, come in Black, Blue and Tan; 30-inch Plush Capes, $3.90, instead of $6; Children's Reckers as low as $1.25. Of course lots at higher prices, too, but OUR prices are always lower than the other stores. All we ask of you is a few minutes of your time. Grant us that, and we will do our best to please you. Come and see us. We are sure to please you.
